MONTH'S EXTENSION

Contract Trouble Threatens Delay At Thornton Ave. School

Contractor difficulties have pushed completion of Centerville's Norris School additions perilously near to the opening date of the fall term, it was disclosed today.

Tom Maloney, district superintendent, said the district's bonding company, dissatisfied with progress of the job, recently took it away from the original contractor, George Green of San Lorenzo, and gave it to the Indenco Company of Hayward to finish.

Last week therefore the trustees had to give Indenco a month's extension of time until August 31, to finish the annex. It consists of six classrooms and a multi-purpose room — a $131,000 job.

Maloney said this allows his staff only a week to prepare the Thornton Avenue school for opening day, September 7.

"By working weekends and over Labor Day, I think we can do it," he added. "It is important to get into the new building on time, so as to avoid double sessions."

The addition doubles the size of the present school, which will be perilously overcrowded unless the annex is finished, he added.

Board Clerk Allan E. Walton also announced preliminary approval has been accorded by the State Department of Schoolhouse Planning for the 5-classroom school in Glenmoor Gardens. This $130,000 structure will be built entirely with State funds. Blueprints are underway now.

EX-CENTERVILLE MAN IS MARINE RECRUITER HERE

The United States Marine Corps Recruiting Service recently announced the assignment of Master Sergeant Joel C. Weaver to the Southern Alameda County area with offices in Hayward.

Sergeant Weaver is a veteran of nineteen years service with the Marine Corps. Enlisting in 1935, he served in Shanghai, China for two years before he was discharged in 1939.

After his discharge he made his home in Centerville until he was recalled to active service in 1941.

From that time until the present the sergeant has traveled extensively, visiting New Zealand, Solomon Islands, Guam, Japan, a return trip to China and recently served in Korea with the famed First Marine Division.

For duty in Korea, he wears the Korean Service Ribbon with three combat stars, the United Nations Ribbon and the Republic of South Korea Presidential Unit Citation.

The Marine Corps Recruiting Office, located in the Veterans Memorial Building, 737 Main Street, Hayward is open from 8:00 A.M. until 4:30 P.M. daily and until noon on Saturday. Interested persons may call LUcerne 1-9966 or come into the office for further information.

HOSPITAL PLANS READY FOR STATE SCRUTINY SOON

Plans for Washington Township's $1,250,000 community hospital will go to the State architect's office shortly after August 16, it was promised here Wednesday night.

Architects Larue Sorensen and Mark Ellsworth asked for another meeting of hospital directors August 17 to approve the final blueprints.

The hospital district has sunk a well 380 feet on the Santos Ave. site, it was reported, and it will be producing water in two weeks. The well was authorized when the local water district was unable to supply necessary gallonage and pressure.

Glenmoor Homes Ask To Join Centerville

Thirty-two residents of Glenmoor Gardens, claiming they are cut off from Centerville's fire protection by the boundary of the Newark Fire District, last week filed a plea to be annexed to the Centerville district.

The petition landed in the lap of the County Planning Commission, after being routed through the supervisors.

The 32 petitioners contend that although they live inside the Newark Fire District they are much closer to Centerville's fire station. Newark's district extends 500 feet on the Centerville side of Blacow Road.

Mrs. Margarido, Scout Leader, Dies In Niles

Mrs. Betty Margarido, 39, prominent in Girl Scout work here, died Monday in her home at Niles after a long illness.

Funeral services were held Wednesday in Hayward.

Mrs. Margarido was the wife of Frank Margarido and mother of Frederick A. and Frank A. Margarido. She was the daughter of Mrs. Henriette Stevenson and the late William D. Stevenson. She was a native of San Francisco.

It is the wish of the family that contributions be made to the American Cancer Society, Alameda county chapter.

BARBECUE SET

Members of the Niles Chamber of Commerce will play host to the town's firemen August 26 at 7 p.m. in Solon's Cafe, according to Vernon Ellsworth, committeeman in charge of the annual barbecue.

WRONG TIME TO START ARTHUR MURRAY, GAL!

Julia runs Del's Place, 505 6th St., Decoto, for Maria Leyva.

On July 27, deputy sheriffs raided the place, charged Mrs. Leyva with operating a dance establishment without a permit.

In court Tuesday afternoon, Julia testified for her boss. Said she:

"I no more than got up and put my hand on the man's shoulder when the officers walked in."

Less swayed by the story than Julia was by the music, Judge William Gale Jr., sitting for Judge E. A. Quaresma, ordered the case continued for trial August 17.

PG&E Will Move To Centerville Office Sept. 1

Headquarters of the expanding southern Alameda county section of Pacific Gas and Electric Company will be moved into a new office at Centerville effective September 1, it was announced today by Peter D. Juhl, local manager of the Niles District.

A sub-agency will be maintained at 541 First Street in Niles, where the headquarters have been since 1929. The new Centerville office will be at 127 Fremont Avenue.

"The growing population of Washington Township has required us to recognize the expansion by moving to these larger and more centrally-located headquarters," commented W. H. Park, East Bay Division manager. "This is typical of our growing California, and is only one of many new offices we have built and are planning."

Pay stations will continue to be in operation in Alvarado, James H. Ralph, 1080 Levee Street; Decoto, Decoto Drug Store, 425 First Street; Irvington, Edward L. Rose, 403 Bay Street; Mission San Jose, Lois J. Bottenberg on Vallejo Street; Newark, Walter M. Haller, 2089 Thornton Avenue, and Niles, Elbert C. Parks, 541 First Street.

Service calls may be made to either the Centerville or Niles offices, while bills may be paid there or at any of the pay stations, the company announcement said.

Parks, a real estate and insurance agent, who is chairman of the Niles Merchants Committee, will move from his present offices to those now occupied by the utility next to the San Francisco Bank. He will maintain his present business in the new location.

CHANGE MEETING PLACE

Niles Unites C of C, Merchants To Tackle Parking, Cleanup

Nello's Termed 'More Convenient'

By STUART NIXON

Making a strong effort to unify businessmen for a bigger and better Niles, members of the local chamber of commerce voted Tuesday to move their weekly meetings downtown.

On September 7, therefore, the chamber will start a 60-day "trial" shift, with Tuesday luncheons in Nello's, at First and H Streets, forsaking its longtime roost at The International Kitchen.

The switch came at the urging of E. C. Parks, chairman of the chamber's Merchants' Committee. Parks said he believes the chamber and the committee should draw closer together, but that since the Fremont Avenue meeting place is inconvenient for many businessmen, it has tended to push the two groups apart.

Frank Brown, furniture dealer, made the motion to change to Nello's for the trial period.

Chamber Pres. Howard Mitchell said he had broached the subject of a "more convenient" meeting place at a recent Merchants' session. He said he had invited suggestions about consolidation.

Brown termed the move "wise", and predicted it would "strengthen" both the chamber and its committee, which in the past has independently promoted such events as Essanay Day, and Hillview Crest shopping day. Said he:

"We must recognize the need for beautifying our stores, cleaning up trash, promoting dollar days — otherwise our customers are going somewhere else, somewhere they're invited by a livewire group.

"We have the largest town, the best facilities — but we must develop them."

Parks declared there are "basic" problems to be solved in Niles. He listed them as:

1. "Operation Cleanup". Niles, said Parks "is not clean." He asserted that trash litters the streets "until on some corners you can hardly wade through it." He said the merchants already have appropriated $300

ALAMEDA COUNTY PASSES S.F. WITH ESTIMATED POPULATION NOW 826,000

For the first time in history, Alameda County has passed San Francisco County in population.

Figures released by the State Department of Finance show that Alameda County has 48,200 more persons than San Francisco.

In a breakdown of California's population, the department estimated Alameda County's population at 826,000, a jump of 85,685 over the 1950 census figure, while San Francisco went from 775,357 to 777,800.

California's growth over the past 12 months was 375,000 residents for a new total of 12,456,000.

Population in the six-county Oakland-San Francisco area was estimated at 2,505,100, an increase of 11.8 per cent over the official 1950 census figure.

Besides Alameda and San Francisco counties, others were listed as follows:

Contra Costa, 354,700; Marin, 104,200; Napa, 56,700; San Mateo, 321,900; Santa Clara, 373,600; Solano, 120,500 and Sonoma, 131,600.

FATAL ACCIDENT

Deer Hunting Season Claims J. M. Vivo, Newark, As Victim

John Manuel Vivo, 23, of Newark, father of two small children, became the season's first deer-hunting fatality Saturday when he was accidentally shot in the stomach by a companion in remote San Antonio Valley, 20 miles east of Mt. Hamilton.

Vivo, an employe of American Forest Products Corp., had lived in Niles until recently.

With a friend, Alvino Trujillo, 23, of Sunnyvale, he left home Friday night for San Antonio Valley to be ready for the opening of the hunting season the next morning.

After an unsuccessful hunt, the two men returned to Vivo's car for lunch. According to Trujillo's story, they then decided to hunt rattlesnakes. Vivo asked Trujillo to hand him a .38-caliber pistol from a glove compartment in his car.

As Trujillo did so, he said the weapon discharged into Vivo's chest.

Trujillo ran a mile to the San Antonio Ranger Station for help. The rangers radioed to Alameda for a Coast Guard helicopter, then accompanied Trujillo to the scene of the shooting. When they arrived, Vivo was dead, and the 'copter was waved off.

Authorities questioned Trujillo, but released him Monday.

A planing-mill clerk and lumber handler, Vivo had worked for the Newark mill slightly more than one year. He leaves his widow Donna, 18; and two children, Joyce Ann, 3; and Steven, 9 months. Also his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Vivo of Sunnyvale.

BURGLARS EVEN TAKE SOUVENIRS

Upwards of $100 in cash and $1000 in liquor was taken when burglars broke into the new Italian Village, highway restaurant at Niles Monday night.

Even two $1 bills, framed souvenirs of first money passed across the bar, were stolen, according to owners Mike Ramacciotti and Guido Roggi.

The loot included about 20 cases of whiskey. Entrance was gained through a rear window.

ELECTION SET

Date for the Washington High tax election was set this week for October 19. Trustees are making a second try for a 50-cent operating tax boost, which was denied in a May 21 ballot.

Ranchers Charged For Poison Spray

Court trial for two Irvington ranchers on charges of illegally using poison spray was set Tuesday for August 27 in the local justice court.

Walter Papazian, and his foreman, Gil Mascardo, are charged with violation of State Agricultural Codes for using the spray without a permit. It is also alleged that because they failed to use proper precautions, strawberry picker Joe Quintana, 17, Irvington, became ill from the poison.

Papazian and Mascardo pleaded not-guilty through their attorneys after arraignment before Judge William Gale Jr., of Pleasanton, sitting for Judge E. A. Quaresma, who is on vacation.

PARKING LOT IN CENTERVILLE UP TO MERCHANTS

Parking problems of downtown Centerville will be eased if a plan announced this week by a chamber of commerce committee is adopted.

The program hinges on merchants underwriting of a lease-option on a 50-car parking lot opening onto Main Street and Fremont Avenue.

The committee, headed by Phil Willis, disclosed it has optioned the lot from Mrs. Marie Bettencourt, who will lease it to the chamber for $125 a month. Mrs. Bettencourt will raze old houses now occupying part of the lot, but construction estimated at $5000 must be paid for by downtown merchants, Willis' committee advised.

Two local contractors, Pacific Coast Aggregates and Clements & Co., have offered to contribute $4000 worth of materials.

According to a suggested arrangement drawn by Chamber Secretary LeRoy Broun, parking would be provided without charge. Merchants would contract to contribute a set sum per month to defray construction costs and rent. This sum would be on a sliding scale to compensate those whose businesses are farthest away from the lot.

Committee members Willis, Sal Valente, Dr. John Austin, James Browne and Bill Beams reported they received enthusiastic support from all merchants contacted to date.

It was also suggested that a second lot be acquired to provide parking for merchants and employes whose stores front on Main Street.

Decoto See-Saws Over Sidewalks

Two factions bristled this week in Decoto over whether or not the town should have sidewalks.

In a superheated meeting, members of the Chamber of Commerce charged that minutes of a session last fall were falsified to show that the chamber approved a sidewalk district.

However Monday night directors of the Decoto Homeowners Association voted endorsement of an assessment district to build the walks — estimated to cost $355,000.

Manuel Hidalgo, former chamber president, had been slated to appear at the chamber meeting last week to ask that steps be taken to form the assessment district. When Hidalgo failed to appear, his part in the issue was hit by Jack Faletti and Phil Hernandez.

Carl Martineau, Jr., was guest of honor at a surprise party July 31. Family and friends gathered at the Martineau home to wish him success in the opening of his new business office. Guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cleary, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Cefalu, Dorothy and Donald Cefalu, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Heald, Mr. and Mrs. John Buster, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Martineau, Sr., Joseph Smith and Jr. and Mrs. Hector Aiken. Mr. Aiken and Mr. Martineau, Jr. are business associates. Martineau, a consulting electrical engineer, opened the new office August 2 on Martha Avenue, Centerville.

Mrs. Marguerite Nolte was hostess to the Glenmoor Bridge Club at the August 4 meeting. Mrs. Nolte won high score, Mrs. Inez Wootton, low.

Miss Judy Temple, San Leandro, and Miss Marion Hall, Pomona, were houseguests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Park last week.

Mr. and Mrs. W. G. LaFar and son, George, Mattos Drive, recently returned from a six-week vacation trip. The first leg of the journey was an air trip to Flint, Michigan, where they picked up a new car. They paid a visit to Canada and then drove to South Carolina, visiting friends and relatives along the way and in the Southern state. Highlight of the return trip was a jaunt into Mexico.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Jankovitz of McCook, Nebraska, visited recently at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emery Peters. Mrs. Jankovitz and Mrs. Peters are sisters.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Ben Alward, Blacow Road, who are parents of a new baby girl! Little Cheryl Lyn checked in August 5 at Alta Bates Hospital, Berkeley, weighing 8 lbs., 10 oz. The Alwards have one other child, Scott, 2½.

Mrs. Matthew Braikovich honored her husband with a dinner party, August 1, in celebration of his birthday. Family and friends present were: Mr. and Mrs. Carl Reutter, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kerscher and Miss Jeannie Allen, all of San Mateo.

William Penner and his bride, Pat, from Stockton, visited for several days last week with Mr. Penner's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Penner, Rogers Avenue.

The Keyt Spencers, Glendale Drive, and a group of friends from Oakland went through their own "lost weekend" recently when they left for a short stay in the mountains. Mr. and Mrs. Spencer, Alonzo and Deborah, Mr. and Mrs. Orville Haines and children, and Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Fitzgerald and children left July 30 for the Haines recently-purchased cabin at Coffee Creek, Trinity County. The diversions afforded by this jaunt were many and varied, although they were not just what the participants had in mind! Things got off to a good start when a tire was ruined on the trip up, but the major blow fell with the discovery that the previous owners had not yet vacated the cabin; which happy fact raised unexpected housing and cooking problems. Other items adding to the merriment included mixing it up with a rattlesnake and rescuing Alonzo Spencer, who got caught in a yellowjackets' nest! Believe it or not, though, the party had a lot of fun along with the comedy of errors. So, instead of pretending the whole thing didn't happen at all, they've decided to laugh it off! Good idea! WELCOME, NEW RESIDENTS!

Toronto Borough Plan Is Pattern For Fringe Cities

Two years ago the Canadian city of Toronto and its dozen suburbs set up a new type of "super" government, the effects of which are being watched closely by America's cities troubled with problems of outlying "fringe" communities.

The first of its kind in North America, this new municipality is the pattern for the borough-type city that incorporators visualize for the unincorporated Ashland area between Hayward and San Leandro.

It has even been suggested as a large-scale pattern for a small-scale "borough" city in Washington Township.

The new metropolitan government has taken over responsibility for everything that is of more than just local significance. What is strictly local — what one town does that in no way concerns the other — remains the responsibility of that single unit.

The Toronto plan works like this:

The new metropolitan government is charged with these responsibilities: assessments, water supply, sewage disposal, public transportation, metropolitan streets and highways, education, some health and welfare services, maintenance of courthouse and jail, regional planning, metropolitan parks and green belts and supervision of debt financing for local units.

A 25-member metropolitan council runs the government. It includes the mayor, two controllers and nine aldermen of Toronto, the chief elective officers of each of the 12 suburbs, and the chairman, or super mayor. He was appointed by the premier for 1953 and '54, but will be named by the council after that.

Left to the individual communities is responsibility for police and fire protection, unemployment relief, local public works, streets that are not included in a metropolitan network, local water distribution and sewage collection, local planning, general administration, and administering grants-in-aid from the government of the Province of Ontario.

Basic to the whole scheme is an equalizing of assessments in order to insure that the services provided will be paid for on a uniform basis throughout the area.

Toronto's metropolitan government was set up by the Ontario legislature. Helping it over the early years of difficulty will be an annual grant of $4 per capita, a sum Ontario feels its cities should have in these days of steep prices.

Negotiations were in their fourth day today between the CIO Steelworkers and officials of the struck Pacific States Steel mill at Niles.

The union struck July 31 when its contract expired.

RECREATION PLAN NIXED IN DECOTO

Decoto School District trustees last week turned down a request for expansion of the school-operated recreation program to include evening adult activities.

The request was submitted to the board by 20 property owners during a budget meeting.

Clerk William S. Davis told the group that the proposal would cost an estimated $12,000 to operate which the district cannot afford.

Means of expanding recreational activities in Decoto will be considered by school trustees on August 25.

A radio powered by sunlight. Man's centuries-old dream of getting power directly from the sun has come true at last. Bell Telephone Laboratories has built a solar battery that directly and efficiently turns sunlight into usable electricity. Made of highly purified silicon—which comes from common sand—the Bell solar battery can run a small radio set (above) or send voices over telephone wires. Telephone people are still testing it. But chances are good that, once they finish, the Bell solar battery will offer great opportunities for improvement and economies in telephone service. Research like this helps us bring better service to more people at the lowest possible cost. Pacific Telephone.

IRVINGTON SQUARE SELLS OUT FIRST 205 HOMES

First "block" of 205 homes already has been sold in Irvington Square, Conway & Culligan's giant subdivision south of Irvington.

This word came today from Bill Humpert, sales agent for the tract. Humpert said the next "block", 100 homes, will go on sale immediately.

"The demand even surpasses Conway & Culligan's expectations," Humpert declared.

He said the bulk of the purchasers are from Oakland, Hayward and San Leandro, with a sprinkling of buyers now arriving in advance of the Ford Assembly Plant at Milpitas, six miles south.

The homes sell in the $11,000 bracket, and are of conventional construction. Featured is a playground and an 11-acre shopping center.

Eventually there will be about 1200 houses in Irvington Square.

WEDGEWOOD STILL PACES SOFTBALL

By SCOTTY

The powerful Wedgewood nine continued their perfect season last week by smashing V.F.W. 13-5. So far this season Wedgewood is undefeated, and it looks as though they aim to stay that way.

The big factor was Wedgewood's big chucker, Ernie Chitwood. He not only held V.F.W. in check, but hit a tremendous grand-slam home run in the first inning.

Ed Machado hit another homer in the fifth to add to the rout.

V.F.W. finally got on the scoreboard in the fifth stanza and exploded for five runs, climaxed with a four-bagger by Sammy Cortez. But this did not help V.F.W. enough, as Wedgewood had chalked up 13 big tallies.

In the first game lowly Orangeburg pulled an upset by belting U.S. Pipe 6-2. The Newarkers' rally started in the first inning when hits by Rocha, Waters and Kalem mixed with a U.S. Pipe error set them ahead, 3-0.

Pipe fought back and scored single runs in the third and the sixth frames. Then in the seventh Orangeburg duplicated the first frame by scoring three runs on three hits and an error, icing the game.

Fellow plant workers, all members of Local 3036, Lumber & Sawmill Workers Union, are in charge of the dance, with Melvin Jorgenson the committee chairman. Hours for the dance, for which Fred Costa's orchestra is to play, will be from 9 a.m. to 1 a.m. at the Newark Pavilion.

NILES CHAMBER CHANGES MEETING SPOT FOR 'UNITY'

for sidewalk trash cans, but that an educational campaign to "Keep Niles Clean" must be promoted at once.

2. Parking. About 2000 new people will move to Niles shortly, he said, and already there is serious lack of parking space on First Street. He said the merchants want to underwrite a parking lot at J Street, recently offered for $30 a month by the Southern Pacific. This would keep merchants' and employes' cars off the street and leave space for customers, Parks said.

"After we get the basic problems solved," he went on, "We can have sales days and invite people to come in."

Only dissenting voice was that of Dr. T. C. Wilson, who commented:

"Some of these guys will drive home for lunch, but they won't come up here."

Baine Leask recalled that several years ago, Newspaper Publisher George H. Oakes had tried to promote a similar organization of Township merchants, aimed at making local stores so attractive that local residents would shop at home.

Rotary Assembly

The Rotary Club's annual assembly honoring their district governor will be held August 26 at the International Kitchen, it was announced last week by President Harlan Bradley.

Bradley also announced the club's ladies night barbecue is scheduled for September 18 at the PG&E Clubhouse.

NEWARK FIREHOUSE ADDITION READY THIS WEEKEND

The new Fire Apparatus Room to the Newark Fire Station will be completed this weekend with the installation of a Barcol Overdoor by the R. A. Parker Company of San Francisco.

All the carpentry work and painting has been done by the personnel of the department with Asst. Chief Louis Caldeira acting as chief engineer of the job. Caldeira was assisted by Commissioner Tony Martin, Chief J. E. Pashote, Lt. Harold Caldeira, plus several volunteers.

Chief Pashote claims that the men saved the taxpayers at least $1500 by doing the work themselves.

Tentative specifications, drawn up by the Chief, for a 1000-gallon pumper, which will be housed in the new addition, will be considered by the Board of Fire Commissioners at its next meeting. The Board is also giving thought to the prospect of building a second fire station on the east side of town, said Pashote.

Chief Pashote claims that due to the industrial plants within Newark, taxpayers within the Newark Fire District will always get better fire protection, plus lower insurance rates, for less tax money than any other Township Fire District.

C'VILLE ZONING DECISION AUG. 19

Final decision on zoning of Centerville is scheduled to be announced next Thursday by the County Supervisors.

The decision is expected following a closed conference between the Supervisors and members of the Planning Commission on Monday.

Dispute over 5000-and-6000-foot lots west of Centerville has been resolved, it is reported, with commissioners agreeing to 5000-foot zoning along the Freeway, 6000-foot minimums elsewhere.

Last remaining protest regarding extension of the commercial area is that of Harold Frank, Oakland, who wants to build a small shopping center at Thornton and Blacow Avenues. A decision on this proposal is expected next Thursday in Oakland by the Supervisors.

Quaresma Quotes Fee For District

Directors of the Alameda County Water District today were pondering Attorney E. A. Quaresma's offer to handle their legal work.

In a letter read at yesterday's board meeting, Quaresma offered to take the job at a retainer of $350 per month, or $625 if he had to institute and fight lawsuits.

Director Manuel Bernardo moved to hire Quaresma at $625, but the motion died for lack of a second, and Chairman E. M. Grimmer said it ought to be tabled for a fortnight's study.

Quaresma's appointment as legal counsel was made two weeks ago.

The directors also agreed to close an option on about 3 acres on the Mayock Vineyard, near Irvington, for use as a future reservoir. Price: $2750 an acre.

Divorces Sought

Cross-complaints for divorce were filed in Oakland this week by LeRoy Broun, Centerville attorney, and his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Broun.

Broun filed first, alleging extreme cruelty, saying the couple was married in 1929 and separated last April. Mrs. Broun charged the attorney with infidelity and asked a share of community property estimated "in excess of $110,000."

AROUND TOWN

The directors of the Alameda County Water District continue sitting on their precarious perch atop the Soito well powder keg. First they are on it, then off, then on again as they reversed the decision to abandon it. The Soito well has been cited as the source of a precedent for similar "beefs" over other wells operated by the district.

If the allegations of the neighboring farmers are true (and we respect their opinions as honest and forthright) then perhaps that precedent might be the best thing for the whole district. Certainly if the salt content rises to a dangerous level for farming purposes it would mean that home users undoubtedly would find it intolerable too.

We will inject a personal observation to the effect that regardless of the outcome of this controversy the troubles of the district are just beginning. As homes are no longer being built by the tens or even hundreds, but by the thousands, a dependable source of supply must be found. This won't be found in one well and although engineer T. C. Binkley told the directors that use of Hetch Hetchy water would either raise the meter rates by 12 cents per 100 cubic feet or the tax rate approximately twelve cents, we wonder if the directors are considering this saving as permanent or interim. Our humble thoughts lead us to believe that increased use of Hetch Hetchy water or establishing its own reservoir system are the two alternates open to the district to provide a dependable source of supply for a "city or cities" within the district as its population continues to mushroom at a phenomenal pace. Either choice will be expensive to the consumers or taxpayers.

Sometimes when news drifts our way it is stale as yesterday's mashed potatoes and when that happens all we can do is make patties out of it and fry them. This way even stale potatoes become palatable.

There are four seasons in the year, but for most of us there are only two . . . the part before our vacation and then the wait for the next one.

Wes and Wanda Sears and their young'un, Linda, did their relaxing exercises on the banks of Lake Tahoe where, if they had stayed awhile, they would have been vacation partners with the De Knoops, Alex and June and their sons, Rickey and Jimmy who were victims of the Tahoe lure too.

A new baby girl has come to bless the new home of Charles and Loretta Smith on Mayhews Landing Road. Sweet little Colleen Mary, weighing six pounds and five ounces, put in her initial appearance into the Smith family on Saturday, July 31 at Hayward Hospital.

Pfc. Leroy Springer was transferred to Fort Lee, Virginia for eight week's training in the Quartermaster School right after sewing on his first stripe. At the completion of the training course, he will return to duty at Fort Wayne, Detroit, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Cotton and daughter, Marjorie did their vacationing in the northwest and during the leisurely trip up north. Stopping each day at a beckoning trout stream to catch their dinner provided a pleasant diversion from the strain of driving. Using this method, it took them five days to reach Tacoma, Washington, where they were to visit Mrs. Cotton's relatives, but it was worth it.

Mrs. Frank Joseph, Mrs. Velma Pool, Mrs. Willard Walker, Jacque and Willard, enjoyed a week of vacationing in Santa Cruz.

Close by were Wanda Rae and Deanna O'Mara as they were staying at the Big Trees Twirling camp in Ben Lomond.

Weekending in Santa Cruz were Mr. and Mrs. Tony Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Leal and Sandra and Russell Pierce.

A double surprise birthday party and barbecue was given by Mr. and Mrs. Tony Lewis in honor of Bob and Florinda Leal last week as their birthdays are only a week apart.

Enjoying the party were: Mr. and Mrs. Steve Yuhasi, and daughter Sharon, Mr. and Mrs. Ceasar Di Giulio and children, Arlene and Richard, Mr. and Mrs. Louie Di Giulio and children, Carol, Sharly and Ronnie, Mr. and Mrs. Tony Rose, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Rose, Mr. and Mrs. Everett Brown, Mr. and Mrs. E. V. Fuggatt, Mr. and Mrs. Emile Pierce and children, Sandra and Russell, John Scarlett and Shirley, Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Loppicolo, Jackie Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Andrade and children, Henry and Marlene and Mrs. Helen V. Fontes.

Enjoying a pleasant Sunday visit as guests of the Jack Binders were Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Casey, and A. L. Ward and son Albert from Fogville . . . er . . . we mean San Francisco.

Joan Ramirez and her children, Ronald, Linda and Christopher enjoyed a whole month visiting with Joan's folks in Blackfoot, Idaho while Elroy kept the home fires burning.

Rickey DeKnoop celebrated his 11th birthday with a camp fire in the backyard where he and his buddies roasted weenies and toasted marshmallows in between playing games. His guests included: Mark and Tony Runnels, Gwinie Boggs, Igor and Svetik Skaredoff, Craig Rice, Butch McDermott and Herman Boggs.

Larry and Mae Meck and children, Clifford, Ronnie and Lauriann enjoyed a short stay in Santa Cruz to break the monotony.

Mrs. Harry Hall arrived in town on the 31st of July from Los Angeles for a visit with her daughter, Catherine Sammon and her family.

Marty and Kitty Sammon are right in the middle of enjoying a vacation trip now. They drove to Ohio where they are visiting Marty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Sammon in Cleveland and other relatives and friends in the Cleveland and Stuebenville areas. Meanwhile, Mrs. Hall is continuing her stay here.

E. O. Pierce celebrated another birthday on Sunday August 1 and was guest of honor at a family dinner party at his son, Carl Pierce's home.

The members of Local 3036 of the Lumber and Sawmill Union are staging a benefit dance for Joe Caldeira, who lost an arm in an accident at the Bulldog Pallet Company early in June.

The dance is scheduled for Friday, August 20 with dancing from 10 p.m. until 1 a.m. at the Newark Pavilion.

The public is invited to dance to the rhythmic strains of Fred Costa's orchestra for a donation of one dollar.

Lloyd Rash of our town and Alvin Silva of Decoto had a wonderful vacation trip. They visited Grand Canyon National Park, Hoover (Boulder) Dam or Boulder (Hoover) Dam depending on party affiliations, and on into old Mexico.

The Anthony Goularte and Anthony Maciel families doubled up last Sunday so Anthony "Butch" Goularte, 3, and Michael Maciel, 4, could get their birthdays properly noted. After dinner their young eyes sparkled at the sight of the goody-goody choo choo train cake coming onto the table by candle power.

Midweek visitors to the Ernest Souza home were Mary's mother, Mrs. Delphina Serpa and her sister, Mrs. Adeline Costa and children, Dorinda and Michael Blaine from Tracy.

Betty Walker and daughter Jan have returned from Los Angeles where they were visiting with Betty's mother, Mrs. Dolly Sutton.

Lester and Ruth Horn and children, Jimmy and Sandra, Joe and Sonny Naguria and children, Mary Ann, Jo Ann and Dennis, Gerard and Vi Gorman and boys, Tommy, Kenneth and David got together at the Gorman home last Saturday to mark the respective birthdays of the three gals, Ruth, Sonny and Vi, whose big days fall close together.

Dot, dash, dot dot dash . . . carroll-o-grams bearing happy birthdays are on the wire to . . . Janice Williams whose sweetness has been a pleasure for the Bill Williams' for one year on August 10 . . . to Jim Gibson who celebrated number sixteen on Tuesday . . . to Vera Reichmuth who doesn't look it but is a year older since yesterday . . . to Gene Lewallen who should be "home" so we can celebrate his properly tomorrow . . . to sweet little Kay Worley who will be having her "cake & ice cream day" on Friday . . . to Clara Faria who will be "admitting" to another year on Saturday.

Most of us like to show off our favorite barbecue dinner once in awhile and we proved to be just that way last week when Clarence, Dorothy and Barbara Redford came up our way to "dry out" after the San Francisco fog.

CO. FARM BUREAU PICNIC AUGUST 15

Annual picnic of Alameda County Farm Bureau will be held August 15 at the Fair Grounds in Pleasanton. The day's activities will begin about 10 a.m. and will include an implement show, folk and popular dancing, children's games and picnic dinner. Coffee will be free, bring your own container.

Speaker of the day will be Louis Rozzoni, of Clements, first vice-president of the California Farm Bureau Federation.

Arrangements are by the picnic committee, with Rasmus Jensen as chairman.

The world's cattle herd at the beginning of 1954 was estimated to be 856 million head — 12 per cent greater than in 1947.

QUARESMA, RHODES IN NEW OFFICES

New law offices for Quaresma and Rhodes were opened this week at the County Building Center, Fremont and Martha Avenues.

The opening of the building marks the beginning of a law partnership between Judge E. A. Quaresma of Washington Township, and Gene Rhodes, recently of Hayward.

Judge Quaresma, who has presided over the local court since 1947, maintained offices in Niles for several years. He came to Washington Township from San Luis Obispo in 1938, practiced in Irvington and then moved to Niles after war time service in South America. He maintains his residence in Mission San Jose and is married to the former Emma Savio. They have five children.

Rhodes began his practice in 1940. He served as State Attorney in Little Rock, Arkansas, spent three years in Military Intelligence, then married Janet Cerrato of San Francisco. Thereupon he moved his practice to Alameda County, maintaining offices in Hayward. Mr. and Mrs. Rhodes have one child and are planning to build a residence in this area.

The law building housing the partnership contains four offices, a large library, reception room, secretaries room, file room, and has complete parking facilities adjoining.

$100,000 STORE CENTER TO OPEN IN MISSION SJ

A $100,000 supermarket and shopping center is slated to open in Mission San Jose before September 1.

The announcement came today from Richard H. Lincoln, owner and builder of the center, which is located on Vine Street at Vallejo and Ellsworth.

Lincoln said the reinforced concrete tilt-up building will be occupied by:

1. The eighth Freeman's Market in southern Alameda County, taking a 60x120-foot space. Owner Les Freeman already has markets in Decoto and Newark.

2. The R & R Variety Store, in a 30x55-foot location. This will be operated by Bob deLambert, of Oakland.

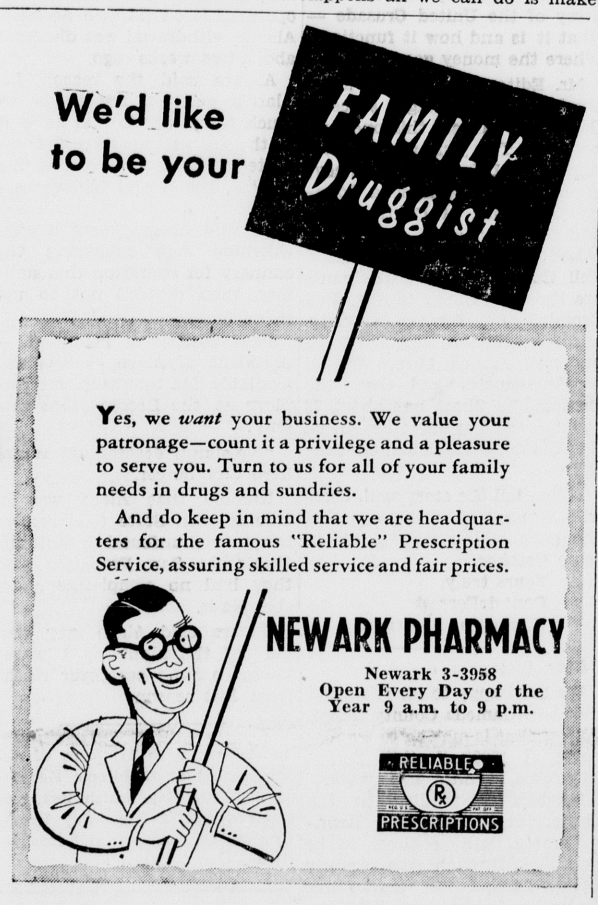

3. A pharmacy in a 30x50-foot site, run by Walter Haller of the Newark Pharmacy and Gregg Vernon of Mission San Jose.

4. The Mission Cleaners & Laundry, owners Hill & Bonta.

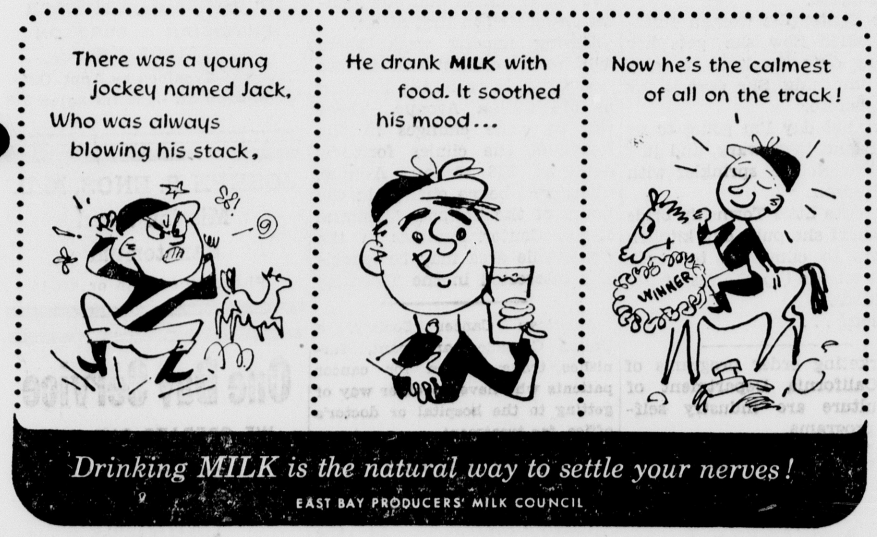

Parking space will be furnished for more than 100 cars, Lincoln said. This will be in conjunction with the remodeled Fig Tree Service Station, owned by Bill Fernandez, from whom Lincoln purchased the store site.

The center is designed to meet the needs of historic Mission San Jose, whose population for a century and a half hovered around 300, and now is estimated at more than 2000 "and still growing".

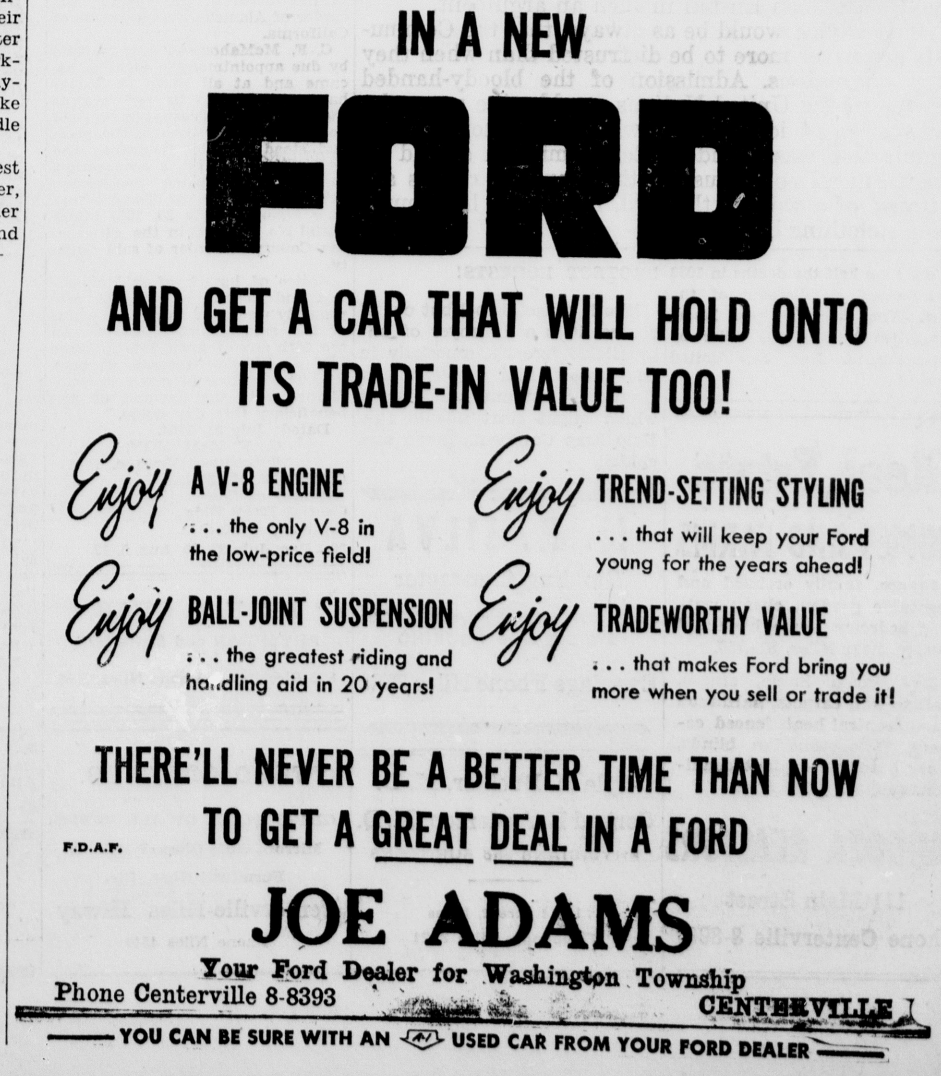

California's first U.S. mint in California was located in San Francisco.

NO LITTLE PLANS

School budgets for our Township, adopted last week, show what big business education has become in these parts. Two million dollars is important money, and that's what it will cost to teach our 6000 youngsters their sums and ciphers between next September and July.

Spending this much money is a heavy responsibility. Even heavier is the responsibility of planning for the future of education here. No longer can our teacher sit at one end of a log and his pupils at the other. Expensive and extensive classrooms are needed, and these must be bought and paid for out of taxes. School trustees can't create tax "mines", only housing, business and industry can do that. But the trustees can smooth the path a lot by wise and timely planning of the many schools which must be built here.

It takes two years or more to build a school, from the time a decision is reached until its doors open. Reading the signs, our trustees now know it will be fatal to hold back, on the chance that new homes won't materialize. Easy home-loan money makes building inevitable as crowded Oakland and San Leandro reach south for living room.

Good example of a decision to go ahead with school plans is shown in Irvington, where trustees voted to bond the district to capacity and seek $1,250,000 in State aid to start three schools. We only hope Irvington's decision wasn't reached too late. Under impetus from the Ford plant and other influences, Irvington may be teaching its children in tents before two more years are up.

What is happening in Irvington can happen overnight in every town in the eight. Trustees and administrators must be alert, must set themselves to keep ahead of growth, not just up with it. They must forget the past, face-up to the future, and above all, when they make plans, they must not make little ones.

BEARS BEARING GIFTS

The Red attitude of conciliation at Geneva caught many observers by surprise. The Communists agreed to let the French and their Viet Nam allies retain control over the south part of Viet Nam, and even promised to withdraw the rebel guerillas from Laos and Cambodia, where they were present in considerable force. We may wonder why they didn't wait and take it all, in view of the rapid crumbling of resistance since Dienbienphu.

There are several possible reasons: China may not be ready for more warfare at the moment, or she may be hoping to capture southern Indochina by infiltration and guile. Again, it may be that Russia is fearful of her partner's growing strength and called a halt to further expansion now.

Our hunch is that the unexpected "soft" attitude on the part of the Communist negotiators is a buildup for another try to get Red China admitted to the United Nations. See what reasonable men we are, they will say. Why not be realistic and admit us to the club?

Some of our allies, for reasons of trade and barter, would back Chou En-Lai in such an argument.

Our advice would be as always, that the Communists are never more to be distrusted than when they offer concessions. Admission of the bloody-handed Chinese to the United Nations would wipe away the last vestige of idealism on which that storm-tossed organization was founded. Red admission should be resisted at all costs, just as the shepherd resists admittance of a wolf to the fold, no matter how much sheep's clothing he dons.

More than half the deaths in 1953 were caused by diseases of the heart. Help the American Heart Association control this killer by supporting the East Bay United Crusade.

SUZY SEZ...

When I offered a second glass of lemonade to a little Centerville girl, she refused, saying, "No, I've had enough, I might get drunk." Was her mother's face red!

I'm afraid I don't care for the public meals eaten on the front lawn by a Newark family.

Often when there's a large group of children playing nearby I find myself answering to the cry of "Mommie" and it's not my youngster at all.

Doesn't Decoto Road look bare without those trees that were recently cut down?

Slice and make melba toast of stale coffee cake or rolls, and they make good snack food.

The folks who always brag and say "I told you so" may be right, but they're usually unpopular.

It isn't much help to local traffic when the lights at Machado's Corners are on flashing red and yellow. Hope they stay in operation as signals.

WHERE is the Niles sign that used to be painted on the hill above town? Visitors doubt me when I tell 'em about it.

A Mission mother cured her five-year-old of playing with matches by making him light and blow out a whole box, one at a time while she watched.

Why do some parents allow their children to just hang around the local stores to get into all kinds of mischief, from shoplifting to annoying the paying customers.

Pity the poor Townshippers who went on a camping trip and found that they'd taken a sack of rags instead of the sheets they needed.

Do you agree with the Newark housewife who says venetian blinds should be outlawed? She was cleaning them at the time.

And then there was the small Irvington boy who asked me, "Do you take from the same garbage man we do?"

You can always tell when someone's cleaning their auto radiator. The rusty water runs down the street, and my youngest wade in it.

It's true, I'm sorry to say, too many square meals make a round figure.

The Centerville woman finally revealed how she gets her washing onto the lines so early in the morning. She does it the night before.

Next hot day I'm going to do as a friend in Newark, and just run through the sprinkler with the children.

One cute little Township bride is so short she pulls out kitchen drawers to climb up to reach things on the top shelves of her cupboards.

So long . . .

READERS WRITE US

Editor, Sir:

The United Crusade is nothing new to most of your readers, but I believe with the over-all goal set at the "Real Needs" figure of 3,800,000 Plus it is going to be necessary that, in October when our Army of Volunteer Solicitors fan out, no person will be missed.

Washington Township has always been a very generous community and will probably remain so, but a very rapid population increase presents some problems. They are real problems.

An increase in population means an increase in our Health and Welfare needs.

An increase in needs means more money must be raised by the United Crusade.

To raise more money either of two things must be achieved, or both. People must give more and more people must give.

To see more people on the drive more helpers are going to be needed.

To get more workers it will become necessary to tell the Story of the United Crusade — what it is and how it functions. Where the money goes and why.

Mr. Editor — you have made the last two campaigns successful. May you help this one succeed too. Tell your readers that this Great Drive for Funds covers most all the Alameda County and much of Contra Costa and collects 75% of the monies raised for Health & Welfare. Tell them that its participants are the Community Chests, Red Cross, Heart, Cancer Arthritis and Rheumatism, Mental Health and the Armed Forces United Fund Agencies and that the Community Chest has about 73 agencies such as Salvation Army, Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Catholic Aid etc.

If you tell the story well, there will be no lack of helpers and the gifts will come rolling in come October.

Yours truly,
Don deForrest
Township Chairman

Editor, Sir:

We are happy to let you know that the Alameda County Health Department is moving to its new home at 15000 Foothill Boulevard, San Leandro, next week.

Services to families in the Centerville, Washington Township area, will continue to be available through the County Office Building in Centerville. As you probably know there are now eight nurses and one sanitarian located in that office.

During moving week there will be no clinics held in the new building or in the building at 576 Callan Avenue. There will be some changes in the hours of the clinics formerly held at 576 Callan Avenue. There will be no change in the hours of the Walpert Memorial X-Ray Center. Families in the Centerville area may be especially interested in the Thursday hours, which are 2:00 p.m. to 7:30 p.m.

If you have any questions please feel free to let me know.

Sincerely yours,
Constance Cavender

ALACO CANNERY WON'T STAY IDLE, OWNER ASSERTS

Alaco Preserving Co. has ceased operations, but the big Decoto cannery it occupies won't remain idle long.

This word came today from Al Ansara, president of Marlo Packing Co., of San Francisco, which owns the building.

"We won't let it lie idle," Ansara promised in a telephone conversation with this newspaper.

He said he had not been given much notice that Alaco would stop work, otherwise Marlo would have (1) leased the cannery to another firm, or (2) operated it on its own account. Alaco's withdrawal was disclosed about two weeks ago.

Ansara said the reason for Alaco's quitting Decoto is as much a mystery to him as it is to the 200 persons who had expected to work there during the apricot, peach and tomato seasons.

He said Alaco "spent a considerable sum preparing the cannery for operation this summer, then decided not to use it."

Paul Parrish of Piedmont — president of Alaco — was unavailable for comment. An employe at the Decoto plant said only:

"We simply decided not to stay here any longer."

Rumors that Alaco was in trouble with State food inspectors proved unfounded. State officials in San Francisco said they had no complaints about the plant.

Ansara said Alaco may rent part of the plant as a warehouse to store carryover stocks from last season.

Children up to 15 years of age are treated at Children's Hospital of the East Bay, which last year received $50,212 from the United Crusade for part-pay and free patients.

BUY ANNUALS FOR FALL PLANTING

Full, rich summer colors are everywhere evident in gardens now, but the gardener who wants to have color continuously into winter should begin selecting annuals for Fall planting.

Right now, says the California Association of Nurserymen, you can secure good nursery started annuals and be pretty sure of success with them until about the middle of September. In the milder winter areas, pansies, violas, marigolds, stock, snapdragons, calendulas, zinnias and chrysanthemums likely will be available to you. A little later on you might consider primula malacoides, cinararias and fibrous begonias. Wherever you live, you can count on your nurseryman to have annuals for winter color — although varieties will differ in the various climate zones of the state.

The two outstanding features of annuals are rapid growth and quick color. Planted in proper time sequence they can provide continuous bloom over the entire year in sections of the state where winters are not too severe — and blooms from the last frost of Spring to the first frosts of Fall in colder winter areas. All that is required is competent planning.

When setting out plants, keep as much soil as possible around the roots. Some water retentive material, such as moist peat or compost, mixed with the top soil will help the tender young roots get off to a good start.

The opposite of summer annuals, which make their growth during a period of increasing temperatures, Fall and Winter annuals make their growth during a period of decreasing temperature . . . shorter days and longer nights. They need a warm start, however, and that's why it's a good idea to plant early.

Editor, Sir:

If your next-door neighbor was hungry, out of a job, without resources, and you had an ample garden, you would certainly donate some of your vegetables.

To me this suggests a new and better approach to our farm surplus problem. Our statesmen wrangle about what per cent of parity should be guaranteed the growers as they agonize about the problem of where to store the mounting surpluses. Their objective, I presume, is to reduce production to bring it into line with domestic consumption plus anticipated world market sales. That may be good economics, but it's mighty poor Christianity. Where millions are malnourished and starving, why don't we — a Christian nation — make our objective the highest possible production (instead of trying to curtail it) and send our surplus to the needy throughout the world?

Granted that it would be costly, but doesn't your conscience tell you it would be worth it? To one who would object saying that we have already done much for these stricken countries, I would agree. But it is likely only a drop in the bucket compared to what we could do with our current surplus. And if you found yourself able to do more for your hungry next-door neighbor you would hardly refrain because you had already done a great deal, would you?

Moreover, most of what we have done recently has been military aid. Even if you grant the advisability of this — a moot question — the fact remains that hungry people can't eat bullets. What we are now doing as a nation is comparable to what you would be doing if you reduced the size of your garden — to adjust to your own needs — and let your next door neighbor go hungry. For is not the malnourished Asiatic thousands of miles away as much your brother and neighbor as the man next door — according to our Christian teachings?

Our country has the opportunity to be the greatest Good Samaritan internationally in all history; to make friends for America and democracy all over the world; to strike an effective blow against communism by raising living standards in red-threatened nations.

And what are we doing about it? Could it be that we're selling out for a mess of politics in Washington as our statesmen bicker over what percent of parity is justified while our surplus grows and millions of poor and depressed in other lands continue to cry for bread?

I can't believe this is because the majority of Americans want it this way. The great heart of America remains the same kind and generous. How can we translate these virtues into action to provide the same Christian charity to our brothers ten thousand miles distant as we extend to our next door neighbors?

MISSION SAN JOSE NEWS

By TEDDY PEREIRA

How I ever forgot to congratulate my friend Faye Castro on her birthday is beyond me but Faye really had a very lovely day.

I even forgot to extend birthday greetings to Bobby Lewis and needless to say her nice family and friends helped to make the event a pleasant one.

Joe Azeveda comes in on this deal too or perhaps it was an anniversary. Also the Azeveda's returned from a marvelous vacation.

Glad to learn John Telles is recuperating nicely following a badly injured foot.

At last after years of self sacrifice and hard work our deserving firemen received the keys to their simply beautiful new firehouse Tuesday nite.

With the buzzing of the new siren lights went on. It really made a most impressive setting.

George Oakes certainly does not lack for good wishes from his countless friends. George is once again around the Township.

Faithful Danny Silva, former Mission lad, now of Oakland, visited Mrs. Rose Recind, where he formerly lived for many years.

Big Jim De Noon of Hoffman Hayride, KPIX-TV, will long remember his birthday, as so much gaiety and fun was enjoyed at the Mission Palms where he was a guest. Too late to bake a cake but Iris Lofton at least stuck a candle in a large piece of pie, with greetings.

Two birthdays same week and same family, Pat Wingett was nine years old Tuesday and Merrie was one year old. What a gala time those kiddies had with their weiner roast in their play house and if you please Patty was hostess to eight little girls, handling the entire event alone.

The Forest Flemings returned from a two week's holiday spent in Fresno with relatives and friends.

The Y Tamura's decided to spend this year's vacation getting acquainted with their brand new son, Ronald.

While Jack Pereira is now putting me through old "deer season" routine.

And the Larry Mederios's and Bob and Laura Mae Brown report they had a marvelous vacation throughout the northern part of the state.

Up from the Valley spending several days here was our Nelle Marie Huddleson with her parents, Faye and Frank Castro.

Speaking of Oregon I was pleasantly surprised with a visit from the Sisters Of St. Mary's Of Oregon and what a small world, as up comes Mrs. Lucille Henry who was taught by these sisters, so you can imagine the powwow we all had.

Patio bar-b-q. Octavia Young, Mary Vieux, Alyce and Stanley McGue were guests at the Niles home of Naomi and Tex Crume where they were served a delicious chicken barbecue.

Big deal, father and son go deep sea fishing off the Golden Gate — meaning Johnny and young Alvin Feliciano.

This is one birthday I am not forgetting. That of little Mickey McBride who celebrated his "6th" birthday with the following young guests, Douglas Steele, Linda Harvey, Carol Brayevich, Alberta Wagner, Patrick Barnhill, Linda Phillips, Jimmie Souza and Jeffrey Souza.

Visitor from South, Mrs. John McDonald enjoyed a visit from her sister for a week, from San Diego county.

NEWARK SCHOOLS, ROAD AGREEMENT

An agreement has been reached between officials of Newark School and county planners for extension of Lincoln Road between Dairy and Thornton Avenues, it was announced this week.

Original plans to cut an 80 foot right-of-way through the school property have been modified to provide for a 60-foot right-of-way, mostly on the adjoining property.

FERTILE COUNTY

More than 80 per cent of all commercially grown flower seeds in the United States come from 1500 acres of fertile land in northern Santa Barbara County.

COUNTY PAYROLLS SWELL IN '54

Alameda County's industrial growth in the first six months of 1954 stepped up the county's manufacturing payroll by $1,742,000 to register a 15.5 percent gain over the payroll figure for the first half of 1953, Ralph E. Merritt, Chairman of the Alameda County New Industries Committee of the Oakland Chamber of Commerce reported today.

New jobs provided by the county's industrial growth during the first half of 1954 totalled 484, up 15.51 percent over the 419 jobs added during the corresponding period of last year, he said.

The total investment of $7,505,000 in new plants and expansions for the six months ending June 30, 1954 was down $3,112,500 over the first half of 1953, but the committee was heartened by the June, 1954 reports on investment and new plants attracted to Alameda County, Merritt said. The two new plants attracted to Alameda County last month represented a total investment of $700,000, an increase of 189.3 percent over the $242,000 invested in three plants during June, 1953, according to committee records.

The increases for the first half of 1954 boosted Alameda County's postwar industrial growth to $278,928,403 in investment, 511 new plants and 979 expansions, 33,291 new jobs, and a $96,771,800 addition to the area's payroll.

International Institute of Alameda County, a United Crusade service for the foreign-born, has organized newcomers in Latvian, Polish, Scandinavian and French clubs, and a Russian Engineers' study group.

How to make gasoline engines last longer

Keep your car engine and other gasoline engines filled with Heavy Duty RPM Motor Oil and drain crankcases regularly. This special oil, developed through atomic research, contains compounds which resist the causes of excessive wear.

A detergent loosens and removes carbon, gum and lacquer from cylinders, rings and other parts, holds all contaminants in suspension so they flow out with drainings. Other compounds in the oil resist oxidation and sludging, prevent corrosion and stop foaming. They also keep a constant film of oil on all parts, whether hot or cold, providing lubrication and protection against rusting in both running and idle engines.
